Memorial service to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the Nypro chemical plant explosion

This devastating explosion resulted in the death of 28 men who went to work that day and did not return home.

All Saints Church, Flixborough is the home of the memorial to those who died and a place of reflection for the families and friends that continue to grieve.

This year marks the 50th anniversary and will be marked with a service at the church, commencing on Saturday 1st June 2024 at 4.30pm.

The service will last approximately 1 hour and will be followed by tea and coffee in the village hall.

You are very welcome to attend and support this event if you are able.

Kindest Regards
